Bruton Case Scheduled to Go to Jury

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A Little Rock orthopedic surgeon testified Thursday that it would have been painful for former Tucker Prison Farm Supt. James Bruton to stand on both legs and whip a man 25 times with a six-foot leather strap.

Dr. Leighton Millard made the statement after stepping down from the witness stand to swing a strap.

Millard, on cross-examination, said, however, that he could not say Bruton was unable to administer the whipping.

Bruton, who served as superintendent for 12 years before resigning in September 1966, is charged with 10 counts of violating prisoners' civil rights through summary punishment in 1964-65-66. Bruton, 56, has pleaded innocent.

The charges were included in indictments handed down last year by a U.S. Grand Jury.

A jury of five men and seven women was empaneled Monday to hear the case.

The defense rested its case Thursday after calling Millard and several character witnesses to the stand.

Final arguments are scheduled today. The prosecution rested its case Wednesday.

Millard said he treated Bruton for a fractured right leg and that he had placed a pin inside the leg. Millard said that in March 1966 he found Bruton had developed a "failure of healing."

A former Tucker inmate testified earlier in the trial that in the spring of 1966, Bruton kicked out seven of his teeth while he was working in the fields at the prison.

Millard said it seemed to him that Bruton had difficulty walking from March 1966 to July 1966.

Former Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon of Morrilton was among the character witnesses called by the defense. Gordon said Bruton had a good reputation in his community.

Bruton's attorney, R. A. Ellibott of Pine Bluff, introduced ruled of the Arkansas penitentiary as evidence. He read a provision which said an inmate could receive corporal punishment for homosexuality, insubordination, making or concealing weapons, refusal to work with-

FCC Says TV Commentators Not Unfair

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has told a Texas woman that television commentators did not violate its fairness doctrine in reviewing President Nixon's Nov. 3 Vietnam speech.

Mrs. J. R. Paul of Houston had written the FCC Nov. 10 saying that "the newsmen were very one-sided in their post-talk analysis of the speech."

FCC Chairman Dean Burch, in a letter endorsed by the entire commission, replied Thursday that no action was warranted and that the commentary was constitutionally protected.

The FCC letter said that the First Amendment "certainly permits the analysis of any one spokesman to be one-sided."

"The issue which was here involved—Vietnam—is one to which the networks have devoted, and continue to devote, substantial amounts of time for contrasting viewpoints," Burch said.

Mrs. Paul's letter was written three days before Vice President Spiro T. Agnew criticized the TV commentators in a speech at Des Moines, Iowa.

Agnew said people have a right to form their own opinions "without having a President's words and thoughts characterized through the prejudices of hostile critics before they can even be digested."

out a medical excuse, and riot. Ellibott also read a clause which stated that an inmate could not be authorized to inflict punishment upon another inmate.

Agnew Is Critical of Some Newspapers After Slap at TV Networks

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, saying he does "not seek to intimidate the press," has extended his criticism of the nation's news media to some daily newspapers.

Finding particular fault with the New York Times and the Washington Post, Agnew Thursday night charged there is a "growing monopolization of the voices of public opinion on which we all depend—for our knowledge and for the basis of our views."

The vice president's attack in a speech to the Alabama Chamber of Commerce came exactly one week after he leveled sharp criticism against the nation's television networks for their handling of news.

In answer to critics who asserted he was attempting to muzzle newsmen, the vice president told his audience:

"I am opposed to censorship of television or the press in any form. I don't care whether the censorship is imposed by government or whether it results from management in the choice and the presentation of the news by a little fraternity having similar social and political views. I am against, repeat am against, censorship in all forms."

However, Agnew said, this does not mean the news media should be free of criticism.

"When they go beyond fair comment and criticism they will be called upon to defend their statements and their positions just as we must defend ours," he said.

In his speech, which ran slightly over half an hour and was interrupted 17 times by applause, Agnew said "... the American people should be made aware of the trend toward the monopolization of the great public information vehicles and the concentration of more and more power over public opinion in fewer and fewer hands."

He then pointed to the Washington Post Co., "a single company, in the nation's capital, (that) holds control of the largest newspaper in Washington, D.C., and one of the four major television stations, and an all-news radio station, and one of the three major national news magazines—all grinding out the same editorial line—and this is not a subject you have seen debated on the editorial pages of the Washington Post or the New York Times."

Katherine Graham, president of the Washington Post Co., issued a statement, which read in part:

"The Washington Post, Newsweek, WTOP-TV and WTOP radio decided to not 'grind out the same editorial line.' ... Each branch is operated autonomously."

Quiver Gives Scientists Moon Surprise

By JIM STROTHMAN
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — An unearthly, 30-minute quiver rippled through the moon after the Intrepid smashed onto the surface and will result in an "unquestionably profound" discovery about the lunar interior, scientists predict.

"None of us have ever seen anything like this on earth," said Dr. Frank Press of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, one of the researchers working with a seismic experiment left on the moon by Apollo 12 astronauts Charles Conrad Jr. and Alan L. Bean.

"It will represent a major discovery completely unanticipated about the moon," Press said. The prolonged signal, like continuing reverberations from a bell that was rung once, was recorded by the seismometer Thursday after Intrepid crashed onto the moon 45 miles away.

This could mean the moon is neither like earth, which has a molten inner core and hard outer crust, or like a meteor, which is hard as a rock all the way through.

Other scientists were elated by the apparent variety of moon rocks aboard Apollo 12.

Judging from moon-to-earth conversations, Conrad and Bean picked up samples of lunar bedrock and core samples that will give a 28-inch-deep profile of the moon's surface, said Dr. Eugene Shoemaker, consultant on lunar geology to the space agency.

Recommends Troopers Discuss Defensive Driving Entire School Board Resign

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A report compiled by an investigating team of the National Education Association recommends that five members of the Pulaski County School Board resign.

The report said the five board members had "demonstrated their unfitness" for the office.

The report referred to the five persons who voted in January not to renew the contract of Supt. Leroy M. Gattin as the "majority faction." Those five were Dr. Robert E. Baker, Winston Chandler, Dr. Dale Cowling, Clyde McPherson and Mrs. Pat Mosher.

Dr. Cowling and Mrs. Mosher announced their resignations earlier this week.

Two of the other three board members, John L. Ulmer and E. H. Herrod, have already resigned and the other board member, Robert P. Lewis, has announced that he will resign at the next meeting.

Mrs. Mosher and Cowling can no longer be identified with the board "majority." They were the only board members to vote against the dismissal last week of Dr. Howard Heidbrink, the third county school superintendent the board has fired in about 2½ years.

When Mrs. Mosher and Cowling submitted their resignations, they called for the resignations of all other board members.

The Pulaski County Teachers Association requested the investigation during its protest of the board's decision not to renew Gattin's contract.

The report said that if the five did not resign, district school patrons should organize to bring about the defeat of those who stand for re-election in 1970.

"Continued deterioration in the school district is too high a price to pay for the continuance of their membership," the report said.

The report charged that several board members had intervened improperly in the functions of the district's administrative and instructional staff, in processing complaints by school patrons and in dealing with staff members "in a manner suggesting a special treatment or intimidation."

The report also charged that Cowling attempted to deny teachers constitutional rights of freedom of assembly and speech and had failed to recognize the president of the Pulaski County Teachers Association in her representative capacity.

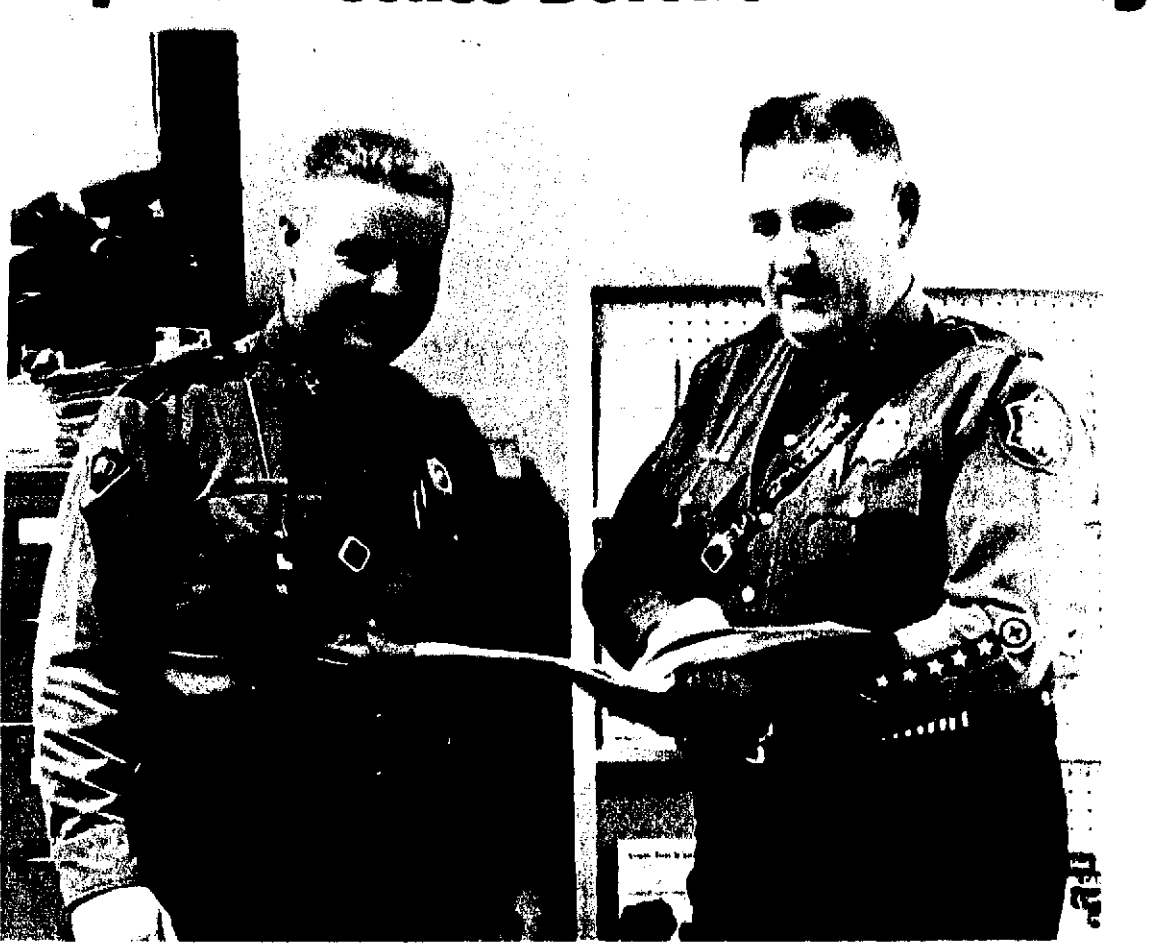

The report also said a majority faction of the board did not properly consider renewal of the contracts of four assistant superintendents earlier this year.

The report was highly critical of Chandler, now chairman of the board.

It cited testimony that parents took their complaints directly to Chandler instead of cooperating with a principal to seek solutions.

The report said that in March Chandler presented a list of about 17 school employees he wanted fired. This list the report said, became known as "Chandler's purge list" and caused anxiety among teachers and administrators. Chandler's actions illustrates "grossly improper conduct," the report said.

It said that, in addition, Chandler threatened individuals by saying that he intended to see that they were fired. The committee cited testimony by a coach who said Chandler had told him he was "going to do something about your job."

Job Changes Not Always Due to Pay

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A report compiled by the Commission on Coordination of Higher Educational Finance indicates that college and university faculty members change jobs for several reasons, not just because of low pay.

The Education Committee of the Arkansas Legislative Council requested the study after a published report indicates that faculty members were leaving the state in large numbers because of low salaries.

Dr. M. Olin Cook, executive director of CCHFE, said low pay was among the reasons faculty members changed jobs. He added, however, there were other reasons including location, promotion, better facilities and more opportunity to do research.

Only one fully has ever won the Kentucky Derby—Regret in 1915.

There was some expectation in Washington that the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese would counter by keeping their top-ranking negotiators away and would charge that Lodge's departure signified that the U.S. government is no longer interested in negotiating a peace agreement.

Presidential Press Secretary Ronald Ziegler, in announcing Lodge's resignation, said the President still believes that "negotiation is the quick route to peace" in Vietnam and still hopes for a political settlement to the war.

Lodge, Nixon's vice presidential running mate in their unsuccessful 1960 campaign, was ambassador to West Germany when Nixon named him to succeed Harriman in Paris last January. Although a lifelong Republican, he was President John F. Kennedy's ambassador to South Vietnam in 1963-64 and President Lyndon B. Johnson's envoy there from August 1965 until early 1967.

$40 Million Left to Care for Animals

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) — George Whittell left $40 million to animals and a million-size headcase to San Mateo County Superior Court.

Some 20 animal protection groups are clamoring for pieces of Whittell's fortune, left in a vaguely written will that he penned before his death April 17.

Whittell, an 87-year-old real estate investor, willed approximately $40 million—of an estate estimated at $50 million to $100 million—to be divided among "Defenders of Wildlife, the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, local or national, and the National Audubon Society, or any affiliated chapter or branch, etc."

Whittell apparently was unaware that no national SPCA exists.

Thirty-four lawyers appeared this week to make claims on behalf of various animal groups across the nation. Judge James O'Keefe scheduled a hearing Jan. 5.

Whittell's widow Elia said she doesn't understand the claims by so many groups, although she is not opposed to their receiving part of the money.

"I think he made it clear in his will. He hadn't discussed it with me, exactly," she said. "I'm not against the money being left to them. I may leave some myself. I haven't decided yet."

In the early 1920s, Whittell acquired thousands of acres along 18 miles of Lake Tahoe shoreline and preserved it in its natural state—filled with wildlife. His widow said they kept cheetahs, lions and other African game at their foothills estate in nearby Woodside.

"We went to Africa some years ago and brought back all sorts of animals," Mrs. Whittell said.

LINDA K. REECE

Linda Kay Reece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Reece of Rt. 2 Hope, will be one of 14 new members pledged to Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity, at its Nov. 24 meeting at Southern State College, according to Susan D. Rogers, Hope senior and president of the fraternity.

Miss Reece is a 1967 graduate of Hope High School and is majoring in English at Southern State, where she has held an academic scholarship and been on the Dean's List.

Miss Rogers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. Rogers of Hope, is also a graduate of Hope High School and at Southern State is a member of Alpha Chi, Lambda Sigma Alpha and the Association of Women Students. She has also held an academic scholarship and is listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

DDT to Be Used Only in Emergencies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin, after moving to eliminate all but emergency uses of DDT by the end of 1970, is planning steps to restrict the widespread application of other persistent pesticides.

In accelerating efforts to halt the use of DDT, Hardin said Thursday he intends to: —Cancel in 30 days the registration of DDT for use against pests in homes, gardens, shade trees, tobacco fields and aquatic areas.

—Outlaw by Dec. 30, 1970, all uses of DDT except for emergency control of diseases and

Families of Astronauts Are Happy

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — "Out of my way, Camille, your daddy's not walking on the moon!"

So spoke Amy Bean, 6, the spunky daughter of Apollo 12 astronaut Alan L. Bean, as she and a neighborhood playmate jockeyed for schoolbus position. The command reflected more pride than conceit, and anyway Thursday was pretty much kids' day for the offspring of moonwalkers Bean and Charles Conrad Jr.

The children of command ship pilot Richard F. Gordon Jr., attended classes as scheduled. Peter Conrad, 14, eldest of the four Conrad boys, rushed off to school after listening to the lift-off of the moonship Intrepid from the lunar surface.

Brothers Thomas, 12, Andy, 10, and Chris, 8, stayed home, catching up on sleep, romping with the family cat and performing bicycle acrobatics. But after lunch, their mother hustled them all off to school.

Clay Bean, 13, also took a holiday and devoted it partially to whizzing around the neighborhood on a unicycle.

The three Apollo wives gathered at the home of Jane Conrad for lunch and a television viewing of Intrepid's rendezvous with the command ship Yankee Clipper.

They surprised newsmen and photographers as they paraded out of the Conrad home, one at a time, carrying signs which read "Thrilled," "Proud" and "Happy."

Sue Bean suggested the words pretty well summed up their feelings so "now we don't have to say much."

massive crop pest infestations. The secretary said he would begin taking action in March against other persistent pesticides "using the same criteria and procedures being applied to DDT."

Hardin's plan to review uses of other hard pesticides apparently is an effort to encourage the use of substitute chemicals or alternative methods of treatment for DDT instead of relying on one of its long-lived cousins. The plan to cancel the registration of DDT for use around the home and in tobacco fields would prohibit interstate shipment or sale of some 14 million pounds of the long-lived insecticide—about 35 per cent of the total DDT used in this country.

READER BREEDER—Who said the youth of America is hooked on pornography (lots of people, that's who)? Figures from publishers don't back up the claim. Word from the New Yorker, which has never gone near the stuff, is that the magazine's circulation has more than doubled with the college crowd during the past year.

NOSE JOB—Milton, our mistreated mailman, came in from downwind with a note from Cool Mitt of Pittsburgh, Pa. (not to be confused with any other Cool Mitts), who is part of a band called Wild Garlic, which, of course, is part of Wild Garlic Enterprises.

Another Pittsburgh reader, Mrs. Jessie Lairy, says her son's outfit is known as The No Name. Wait till Wild Garlic hears about that.

SOUND OFF—Jac Holzman, No. 1 guy at Elektra Records, likes Youth Beat's vibrations and wants to give our readers a chance to show off their talents, if any. If there's music in your soul, ship us your audition tapes, care of this paper, and we'll pass 'em along to Jac, who'll give them a listen. Who knows, you might become the next Bread (might even make some).

EDITORS NOTE—School papers lay it on the line these days (lots of 'em do, anyway), but to a limited readership. If your paper is taking a stand on an issue that you think would be of interest to other kids in other schools, send us a clip. If we like what we see, we'll reprint your items in a special section to be called Sounding Board. Let's hear from you.

PROM PLANS—How far ahead do you plan your after-prom dates? In New York, Jules Podell says he's already swamped with reservations for the prom season at his Copacabana, which takes in a lot of advance planning, when you consider that the season officially starts in mid-April.

SNOW BLOWS—If you live in some country, here is a tip from Don Hammond, a commissioner at Holiday Mountain Park in the northeastern ski country of Sullivan County, N.Y., up in the Catskills. "Get up quickly after falling down and get out of the car or other skiers. If you leave a 'sitmark,' fill it and stamp the snow down. We'll have more pointers if you let us not just this one."

Sewing Champs' Secrets

By JOANNE SCHREIBER

Do sewing champions have special sewing secrets?

To find out, we quizzed the winners and runners-up in the Seventeenth Annual Singer World Stylemaker Contest, held recently in Los Angeles.

Yes, Virginia, there is a magic word for sewing success. It's patience. "Be patient," advises 15-year-old Kathleen Ann Souza, whose patience won her the crown in the Sub-Deb Division.

Elizabeth Logan, 12, of Marshall, Tex., expands the theme: "My secret is having the patience to rip something out and do it again." From Louann Jones, 17, of Charleston, W. Va., comes, "Patience plays a big part in sewing." She defines the word as "taking your time and checking your seams."

Gail Brown, 18, of Kent, Wash., stresses the importance of choosing the right fabric and pattern. She recently tested three patterns before cutting into a length of fabric.

Hope Hunter, 16, of Charlotte, N.C., offers this bit of sewing savvy: "Instead of fitting an untried pattern by sewing up a muslin shell, I choose an inexpensive fabric that I can wear with pleasure."

Apparently there is also an emotional side to sewing success. Says 17-year-old Sewing Queen Victoria Lynn Krasowski of Downey, Calif., "I choose a pattern I really like. Then I select an exciting fabric... to give me the motivation to get busy and make it with enthusiasm."

"Inspiration is my secret," confides Doris Autry, 15, of Steadman, N.C., "because if I don't like the dress I'm making, I won't do my best."

Careful selection of pattern and fabric is also important. Kathy Jo Bartoletto, 11, of Toledo, Ohio, shows the flair of a fashion pro in saying, "My secret of sewing success has been my determination of choosing the pattern and fabric regardless of cost which will inspire me to complete the garment to the best of my ability." Her winning cape outfit cost $21 to make. Contest prizes were a choice of a European trip or $1,800 in cash, plus several other prizes.

By comparison, the charcoal-gray dress and coat ensemble which won a glittering crown for Vicki Krasowski cost $55 to make, and Sub-Deb Queen Kathleen Souza spent $53 for her winning red-white-and-blue ensemble.

But the 18 finalists, with the 93,000 girls who entered the contest, share the goal of every woman who has ever threaded a needle. Gail Brown puts it this way: "The result is a garment of which you are proud to say, 'I made it myself.'"

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

NEW HELP FOR THE MENTALLY ILL

Dear Helen: If anyone writes to you in desperation, "Helen, I've BEEN seeing a psychiatrist regularly but it's not helping..." I thought you'd be happy to know that today there is still another place to turn. My husband literally dragged me to a doctor, connected with Columbia Medical School and Rockland State Hospital, who is doing research work with drug therapy for emotional illness. The four-bit title for this is PSYCHOPHARMACOTHERAPY.

The doctor placed me on an experimental medication which has sustained me beautifully for three years now. In fact, I hold a responsible part time job; my family is united, and the children are doing us proud. My health is excellent, proving that continued use of drugs is not harmful—if taken under a doctor's supervision of course.

While on medication, most patients (who might otherwise be hiding their heads under a pillow in a darkened room or hitting the bottle to "escape") react normally and can carry on their everyday lives. My doctor believes this method is tailor-made for the person who needs help desperately but who refuses to "go see a psychiatrist" either through fear he will be labeled a nut or because of financial reasons—he's simply "going to a doctor and receiving medication." Appointments can be spaced a month or more apart and the cost is much less.

Of course drug therapy can be used in conjunction with traditional psychotherapy with excellent results. Believe me, Helen, I am NOT disparaging psychiatrists and

Dear Helen Would you please again remind people how tactless and hurtful it is to ask, "Why aren't you having a family?" or "What, just one child?"

This is sheer cruelty to a couple who does not want to discuss its secret. We have a lovely three-year-old girl. But my husband and I are on the verge of separation. No one knows—we put on a good show. But it would be disastrous to start another baby just now.

NEW YORK (AP) — They have disappeared from the networks but many of the best departed are living on local television stations.

The fate of series discarded by the networks is syndication and old favorites pop up in reruns all over the nation at all sorts of times—"Ben Casey" and "Batman" of recent memory as well as some that go back to TV's salad days, like "My Little Margie."

Some shows bounced by the networks continue making new programs. One is "Truth or Consequences," with host Bob Barker still persuading contestants to do all sorts of silly things for prizes.

Some old programs have been revived for syndication. This started with "What's My Line?" a couple of seasons back and it sold so well to independent stations that its producers gave some others a new life.

Now there is "Beat the Clock," another of those stunt shows that went on for years with the late Bud Collyer as host, and "To Tell the Truth," another of Collyer's shows.

Neither panel show seemed substantial enough to hold an evening audience, but were perhaps a bit brighter than many of the daytime shows currently filling network hours.

ABC has confirmed rumors that it will completely revamp "The Survivors" when the series moves to a new time period in January. George Hamilton will be the only star to remain with the series. Lana Turner and Kevin McCarthy will depart—how they are removed from the story has not yet been determined. For Ralph Bellamy's departure, it already has been suggested in the show that the character he plays does not have long to live.

Recommended tonight: "The File on Devlin," NBC, 8:30-10, international intrigue on "The Hall of Fame," with Judith Anderson and David McCallum; "Mirror, Mirror, Off the Wall," NBC, 10-11, original comedy with George C. Scott and Maureen Stapleton.

Hope Star SPORTS

Tonight Is It for Hope and Arkadelphia

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

No need to be wordy now. Hope is 9-2, Arkadelphia is 10-0, and the case comes to court tonight (Friday) at 7:30 p.m. in Henderson Stadium at Arkadelphia.

All past records and glory will go out the window, and two of South Arkansas' finest teams will decide which is the better. Hope will win, and the whys are given below.

It is Homecoming for the Arkadelphia Badgers, and they have the added pressure of an unbeaten record entering the final hurdle. In short, they have everything to lose while Hope has it all to gain.

Passer Bill Vining directs the dangerous and explosive Badger offense, and he will give the highly-praised Bobcat defense its sternest test. Vining will throw to ends Bill Hurley, Robert Sanders, and Scott Thomas, but backs Luther Guinn, Carlos Murch and Gary Anderson all have breakaway speed.

On defense Arkadelphia is big and experienced up front, and this forces pressure on the Hope offensive line. The Bobcats have not been too proficient in protecting QB Ronnie Massanelli all year, and tonight they must establish both the running game and passing attack.

But in every comparison, Hope tailback Artis Martin stands out. He did not see offensive action in the 29-0 loss at Fairview, and is personally keyed for what could be his last high school game.

There are 41 other Bobcats similarly pitched in emotions, and the trick will be to prevent a letdown prior to the kickoff like what happened at Fairview.

If and when hope wins, a Fairview victory over Malvern would force a three-way tie in 4-AA West. In that case the three schools will flip the coin to decide the representative to the 4-AA playoff next Wednesday. If Hope wins and Fairview loses, though everything goes to the Bobcats.

People will be at the game from everywhere, but Henderson's spacious new stadium should hold most all of them.

Besides the possibility of the 'last game' for 14 Hope seniors, significant or not, this could be the last game for me to cover as Hope Star Sports writer. Three years has been a long time for it all to come down to this one tonight, but that is football and that is sport, the competition of which is the greatest bond mankind has in this age.

As the sportswriter I have covered the 2-8-1 teams and the 4-7-1 teams and the 8-14 teams and the 4-20 teams, associating with every player and every coach. This Hope-Arkadelphia showdown, with so much at stake, seemingly culminates and more than typifies the excitement, the enthusiasm, and the leadership that this Bobcat team can claim to.

This town of Hope has caught up in the fever, too, and everybody in a few hours will either be at Arkadelphia or be listening on the radio. That following, along with the tremendous school spirit this fall, is the best thing to hit this town since when, and the challenge is to keep it up without letdown for years to come.

The Hope Bobcats will win, for themselves, the coaches, the schools, and the town. Hope will beat Arkadelphia 14-13, and hysteria will reign immediately afterward.

KKAR, of course, will broadcast the game live and play-by-play from Henderson Stadium, with the pre-game activities starting at 7:00 p.m.

Air Force to Be Gunning for Irish

By JERRY LESKA

Associated Press Sports Writer
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — Cotton Bowl-headed Notre Dame will strive as a three-touchdown favorite to bag Air Force's air-minded Falcons Saturday and close the regular Fighting Irish football campaign with an 8-1-1 record.

Unbeaten since a 28-14 second-game loss to Purdue the Irish face their most skilled passing threat since Bollermaker Mike Phipps riddled them at Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 27.

He is quarterback Gary Baxter, whose favorite Falcon target, speedy flanker Ernie Jennings, ranks 16th nationally in receiving with 49 catches for 695 yards and nine touchdowns. Also a kickoff return specialist, Jennings had romped for a 29.5 average on 14 hauls.

The Falcons have had little trouble putting points on the board, averaging 29.0 in scoring to a respectable 6-3 record. However, Notre Dame will be the Air Force's biggest opponent of the season.

The Irish Front Four outweighs as the Falcon forwards a whopping average of 34 pounds per man, 247 to 213. On offense, Notre Dame's line has a 14-pound bulge, 231 to 217.

In gearing for the first Irish post-season bowl game since the Four Horsemen club won the 1925 Rose Bowl game, the Irish will be aiming at their best finish since the 1966 national championship team's 9-0-1 record.

That season, Notre Dame played a controversial 10-10 tie with powerful Michigan State, one week before clinching the national crown with a 51-0 clobbering of Southern California.

This season, Coach Ara Parseghian's eighth-ranked Irish played favored Southern California to a 14-14 deadlock on Oct. 18 and since have swept to easy victories over Tulane, Navy, Pittsburgh and Georgia Tech.

The Irish finale will be scouted by No. 2-ranked Texas and No. 3 rated Arkansas, one of whom will oppose Notre Dame as the Southwest Conference champion in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day.

Unless Irish brawn wears down the vastly outweighed Falcons, a free-scoring battle may develop in the quarterback duel between Baxter and Notre Dame's Joe Theismann, each having hurled 13 touchdown passes. Jennings' Irish pass-snagging counterpart is end Tom Gatewood with one less TD catch at eight.

One of Air Force's three losses came last Saturday in a wild 47-34 defeat by Jim Plunkett-led Stanford with the Falcons leading twice in the first half. The other Falcon setbacks were early in the season, a close 19-17 shading by No. 7 Missouri and another two-point nipping, 27-25, by Wyoming.

Cotton Bowl Rated Top One This Year

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Orange Bowl offers sunshine and Miami Beach. The Sugar Bowl offers the New Orleans French Quarter. The Cotton Bowl sometimes offers bleak weather and always offers limited nightlife. On New Year's Day, the Cotton Bowl will also offer Notre Dame in its first post-season football appearance in 45 years.

Many sports experts and fans figure that makes the Cotton Bowl the glamor attraction of the bowl games, with the Fighting Irish playing either Texas or Arkansas.

It was widely known in football circles as early as Wednesday, Nov. 12, that Notre Dame would accept a bowl bid. There was much speculation by Friday that the Orange Bowl had Notre Dame and Penn State sewed up.

On Saturday night, Notre Dame Athletic Director Moose Krause told a newsman who called him from Miami that his personal preference was the Orange Bowl.

All the time, Field Scovell of Dallas, a big Texan with a slow and easy drawl, was working in the belief that the Orange and Sugar Bowls had mounted high-pressure campaigns. What could he do?

"We didn't crowd those people and it paid off," he told The Associated Press.

Scovell began his cool maneuvers on Nov. 12. "Some local Notre Dame folks told us Notre Dame might be interested," he said. "We told them we had been down that path before and that we felt like Notre Dame would continue its policy of not participating in post-season activity."

At this point, unbeaten Penn State was still the No. 1 choice of the Cotton Bowl. Penn State seemed torn between the Cotton and Orange Bowls.

Scovell and Administrative Assistant Wilbur Evans left Friday for Penn State to watch the Nittany Lions play Maryland on Saturday.

"We had to land at Cleveland because of snow in Pittsburgh and drove 270 miles through snow and ice to Penn State," said the leather-tough Scovell, an insurance executive who played football at Texas A&M. "I can tell you right now I ain't no great snow driver."

A telephone call was waiting for Scovell and Evans when they arrived.

"It was my Notre Dame partners telling me that the Irish were for real," Scovell said.

For real? Meanwhile, sure enough, there had been discussions in Miami of Notre Dame for the Orange Bowl. Members of the Orange Bowl committee say now they were guided by two thoughts:

1. They've had a long, happy association with the Big Eight and they didn't want to damage it by passing up Missouri.

2. The Orange Bowl was just about sold out and it a surprise team, Notre Dame, were introduced would simply cause a mass scramble and antagonism among Notre Dame fans.

A source at Notre Dame says the school was informed unofficially on Saturday that it was not being considered for the Orange Bowl.

Scovell and Evans didn't know that. They decided to pursue the soft-sell approach—and decided against rushing down to Atlanta to watch Notre Dame play Georgia Tech. But they were uneasy.

"We were beginning to get the feeling on Saturday," Scovell said, "that if we stayed right down to the wire with Penn State they might go to Miami and leave us holding the bag."

At 6 P.M. Sunday, Scovell and Evans set out for South Bend—first by car, 160 miles, over the snow and ice from State College to Pittsburgh, then by plane to Chicago.

Meanwhile, on Sunday night, the Notre Dame players were called together and told they probably would get an invitation from the Cotton Bowl. They were also told it was the only offer they could count on. They voted and the result, said Coach Ara Parseghian, "was almost unanimous."

At 7 a.m. Monday, Scovell and Evans caught a Chicago flight bound for South Bend.

Scovell's talks were with Krause, Parseghian and the Rev. Edmund P. Joyce, executive vice president of the university and chairman of the faculty board in control of athletics.

"They are real nice people and that Father Joyce is a sharp businessman," Scovell said.

Henderson Rated Over Ouachita

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas State University football coach Bennie Ellender was elated when his Indians were offered a spot in the Pecan Bowl, but Ellender is a stick-to-the-knitting coach.

"Our immediate plans concerning the bowl game is to try to push it out of our minds until after we play Trinity," he said.

"We know it will be impossible to forget the bowl as we prepare for this important conference game," he said. "But we've placed a great deal of importance on winning this weekend and that is, of course, utmost in our minds."

A victory over Trinity Saturday would assure the Indians of their second consecutive Southland Conference championship and Ellender isn't going to let them forget it.

The Pecan Bowl will be played Dec. 13 at Arlington, Tex., and the Indians will take on Drake.

Earlier this season, Drake managed a 21-21 tie, scoring eight points after time had run out.

The Indians lost to top-ranked North Dakota State 23-14 in last year's Pecan Bowl. The Indians will have ample opportunity to concentrate on Drake after meeting Trinity.

Henderson and Harding can share the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship if both win Saturday.

Henderson climbed back into the race last week when Arkansas Tech handed Harding its first loss of the season.

Two Games Slated in Conference

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
There won't be many fans in the stands but there will be a lot of that "good old college try" Saturday when Rice meets Texas Christian and Southern Methodist battles Baylor in rather meaningless Southwest Conference football games.

Rice (1-4) and (2-6) is at TCU 3-3 and 3-6 while SMU 2-4 and 2-7 is at Baylor 0-5 and 0-8.

SMU coach Hayden Fry points out that Baylor will be dangerous.

"Baylor has had some bad breaks and a number of hand-capping injuries," he says. "The Bears never have been able to put it all together at one time and I sure hope it doesn't come Saturday against us."

"They have a big, strong football team with a balanced attack. They played Arkansas 7-7 going into the fourth period and they had Texas Tech like that in the third period Saturday. They are capable of playing good defensive football."

SMU has the nation's leading passer, Chuck Hixson, going into the game. Baylor has the nation's best punter in Ed Marsh who has punted 59 times for a 44.3 average.

Waaa

Baylor's last victory over SMU was in 1965 and the Mustangs lead the all-time series 24-20-7.

Bear quarterback Laney Cook has a deep hip bruise and it's questionable whether he will see action. Part-time starter Steve Stuart will get the nod at the man-under post if Cook can't see action.

Rice should be up after its 7-6 victory over Texas A&M last week while TCU is still trying to find the pieces after the 69-7 stomping by Texas.

Tailback Mike Spruill has given the Owl running attack a big boost. He gained 124 yards and scored the winning touchdown against the Aggies. Stahle Vincent will probably start at quarterback for the Owls.

Steve Judy, TCU sophomore, is the SWC's No. 2 passer despite a poor day against Texas. Linzy Cole is a threat anytime he touches the ball. He has returned three punts for touchdowns and holds a TCU one-season record of scoring passes. TCU leads the all-time series of 25-19-3.

Crowd of about 20,000 are expected at each game. Kickoff is 2 p.m.

Texas Tech, Texas A&M, Texas and Arkansas are resting this weekend, getting ready for Thanksgiving Day encounters.

Tech is at Little Rock to meet third-ranked Arkansas while second-ranked Texas meets A&M at College Station in their annual grudge match.

Unitas Denies Report He May Retire

BALTIMORE (AP) — Quarterback John Unitas, admitting he doesn't like to sit on the Baltimore Colts' bench, has denied reports he said he might retire or seek the undisputed No. 1 job with another club.

"I don't know where you guys get these things," the 36-year-old National Football League veteran said when asked to comment on a story Thursday by Dean Eagle, sports editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal. "I have no idea of retiring or for going to another team," Unitas said in Baltimore late Thursday.

Unitas was benched in the second half of last Sunday's 20-17 loss to the San Francisco 49ers, and Baltimore coach Don Shula has tabbed Earl Morrall as his starting quarterback this Sunday against the Bears in Chicago.

The Louisville article quoted Unitas as being unhappy with the benching and with Shula's announced plans to operate his quarterbacks in tandem the rest of this NFL season.

"I won't play under the circumstances," Unitas was quoted in the story. "This is the last year of my playing contract, I might consider playing for another club."

In Baltimore, Unitas denied making the statements about retiring or going to another club and said he was not "bitter" about not starting this Sunday.

"I don't like to sit on the bench," he said. "Anyone with competitive spirit doesn't like to sit on the bench. Earl (Morrall) doesn't like it either."

Morrall, a 14-year veteran, took over last season for an injured Unitas and guided the Colts to the NFL title, earning him-elf the league's most valuable player award.

Michigan Can Cinch Rose Bowl

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Michigan can cinch a Rose Bowl bid with a victory or strong showing against top-ranked Ohio State in the college football bone-buster of the year Saturday.

Purdue, a less likely choice to represent the Big Ten in the New Year's day classic at Pasadena, Calif., still has an outside shot at the Granddaddy bowl if:

—The 12th-ranked Wolverines get blown out of Michigan Stadium by the big, bad Buckeyes. And Purdue clouds Indiana Saturday and throws the Big Ten race into a flat-footed tie with both teams having 5-2 conference marks.

Then, Big Ten athletic directors would have to vote on which team represents the conference.

Ohio State could win the Big Ten championship and wind up No. 1 nationally, but not go to the Rose Bowl since the Buckeyes are ineligible after playing last year in the post-season game.

Meanwhile, back on the West Coast, Southern California, the nation's No. 5-ranked team, plays sixth-ranked UCLA to determine the Pacific-8 Conference's representative in the Rose Bowl.

Elsewhere on the college football scene, second-ranked Texas and third-ranked Arkansas have the day off, but play Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, against opponents which should give them little trouble. Texas takes on Texas A&M and Arkansas, Texas Tech.

Fourth-ranked Penn State plays at Pitt Saturday; seventh-ranked Missouri plays at Kansas; No. 8 Notre Dame hosts Air Force; No. 9 Tennessee plays at Kentucky and No. 10 Louisiana State plays at home against Tulane.

In the second Ten, No. 11 Auburn and No. 13 Mississippi have the day off; No. 14 Stanford hosts California; 15th-ranked Florida has the day off; No. 16 Nebraska plays at Oklahoma; No. 17 Purdue plays at Indiana; No. 18 West Virginia visits Syracuse; No. 19 Houston hosts Wyoming and 20th-ranked Toledo travels to Xavier.

The weekend's activities start tonight in the Orange Bowl, where Miami takes on Wake Forest.

According to a Detroit sports-caster, Michigan already has nailed down a Rose Bowl bid. Bob Reynolds, sports director of Radio Station WJR, said the action "was taken the first of the week."

Big Ten athletic officials vigorously denied the Reynolds' statement.

Ohio State, winner of 22 straight games, is a two-touchdown favorite over Michigan, but it doesn't bother Wolverine Coach Bo Schembechler.

"We're going into this game like we can win it," says Schembechler, "it's for all the marbles."

Southern California, which lost last year's Rose Bowl to the Buckeyes, will be trying to make the trip to Pasadena for the fourth straight year. The Trojans are favored—but not by much—over the classy, colorful Bruins and their exotic triple option offense.

Southern Cal will have its hands full with UCLA quarterback Dennis Dummit, a magician on a football field.

ANNUAL REPAST
The pastor and members of the Lonoke Baptist Church served as host to the Division B singers on November 17. The event is an annual affair following their participation in the Pre-Musical for the Southwest District Association.

The Fellowship Hall was beautifully decorated with flowers, with a small center piece of flowers marking each table. The menu consisted of fried chicken, potato salad, pie and coffee.

The president of Division B served as M.C. The pastor Rev. Walter White brought the devotion while Miss Norma Jean Smith presided at the piano.

The group sang, "What A Fellowship," after which they engaged in musical games and quizzes namely: Name That Tune, Musical News Reel, Musical Medical Diet and recognizing musical symbols. A guessing game of hymn stories read by Mrs. L. J. Yeager and Mrs. Ethel Bizzell, created much interest.

Church Music in the Religious World, was read by Mrs. Martha Thompson and Mrs. Corrine Gilbert.

Special guests attending were: President of Division C, Mr. Rosboror Hendrix and Mrs. Hendrix of Malvern, and Com-mado Hendrix of Division A. The affair was well attended.

Texas Loses Linebacker for Turkey Day

Texas lost a first string linebacker Thursday for its Thanksgiving Day battle with Texas A&M.

Junior Letterman Scott Henderson of Dallas turned up with a fracture of a foot bone. It happened in a sweat clothes drill Wednesday, but wasn't discovered until 24 hours later.

Doctors aren't sure whether Henderson will be ready for action Dec. 6 in the Southwest Conference championship game with Arkansas.

In the Texas A&M camp, coach Gene Stallings was asked to speculate on whether A & M would have any "Texas Specials" or trick plays ready for the Longhorns in the College Station game.

Stallings grinned and said, "Yes, I guess you could speculate on that."

Stallings praised the second-ranked Longhorns and said "I don't think either team will have any problem getting ready mentally."

"Regardless of what I say and regardless of what Darrell (Royal) says, the game will be settled out in the arena. They can't wait for Thanksgiving and we can't either."

Stallings said "Texas has a lot of depth and their third team probably has more experience than a lot of the other first teams."

"For us to have a chance to win, we've got to move the football ourselves and not give it to them in the four-down zone. And, we've got to stop their running game. Actually, we'll have to stop both the run and pass, but primarily the run because if they are throwing the football they are doing something they don't want to do."

DETROIT (AP) — In an effort to snap out of a 1969 profit squeeze, the U.S. auto industry made a large investment in high-powered sporty cars for 1970.

Now there are signs that the American consumer isn't buying and the squeeze could turn into an economic bear hug.

Inventories are higher this year than last and specialty cars top the list. An indication of the high inventories came Thursday when Chrysler Corp. said it would lay off 17,800 workers on several car lines for the four scheduled working days next week.

It was the first cutback for inventory adjustment by an automobile manufacturer since the start of 1970 model production.

American Motors had stocks of 1970 Javelin and AMX models which will last more than 100 days, the trade publication Automotive News said this week. Chevrolet Camaro and Pontiac Firebird unchanged from 1969 each stood at more than 100 days along with Plymouth's Barracuda.

The industry as a whole was reported to have a specialty car inventory which would last 75 days. The inventory of all cars was estimated at 45½ days, 6½ days higher than a year earlier.

Following 2 grafts embargoed for 9:30 a.m. EST.

A highly regarded University of Michigan economist, George Katona, said today he sees trouble ahead for the auto industry with indications of a 5 to 10 per cent drop in sales for 1970 cars.

run on Raiders, Daryle Lamoni-ca will get the big rush.

New York 27, Cincinnati 21— Jets were embarrassed by Chiefs and anxious to take it out on somebody. Wrong day for Greg Cook and his playmates to visit Shea.

Houston 20, Miami 14— Houston, second in East, still has a long shot chance of catching Jets or at least getting in play-offs. Dolphins in tough shape without Bob Griese, Roy Gerals kicked five field goals in Sept. 28 game, won by Oilers 22-10.

San Diego 17, Denver 14— And what difference does it make? Both clubs eliminated from chance at first and Floyd Little still only a possible for Broncos.

Chargers were in there all the way with Oakland last week so rate the call at home.

Boston 21, Buffalo 20— Flip a coin or take a blind stab. Pats being at home helps but Bills won first game 23-16. After losing first seven, Pats have won two of three. Bills broke four-game losing streak by bombing Miami last week.

Kansas City 24, Oakland 21— Can't shake the memory of that 41-6 win by Raiders in 1968 championship game after they split at home. This first of two (second game Dec. 13) and home field edge goes to Kansas City in one of the better games of the season, Lenny Dawson has Otis Taylor back to help and those pony backs may be able to

Quickest way to confuse a local politician is to quote one of his off-year election promises, and then ask "Who said it?"
 Lushy pal says he's always cheered when waiting for the owl bus home, he's waved to by the tavern owner as the boniface drives by in a limousine.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Faulty Diet Is a Cause Of Portal Cirrhosis
 By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—How does portal cirrhosis affect a person? How is the diagnosis made?
A—Portal, alcoholic or Laennec's cirrhosis is the commonest form of this liver ailment. It comes on gradually after many years of faulty diet which in many, but not all, cases is due to heavy drinking. The symptoms, which are varied, include poor appetite, easy fatigability and loss of weight. As the disease progresses there may be jaundice, waterlogging, spider veins and a tendency to hemorrhage from the esophagus.

A history of alcoholism and/or malnutrition, the symptoms above mentioned and a hard, moderately enlarged liver give the doctor a reason to suspect cirrhosis. If there is any doubt, liver-function tests will show impairment and a microscopic examination of liver tissue (needle biopsy) will show characteristic changes.

Q—How serious is primary biliary cirrhosis of the liver?

A—Early in the course of this disease a persistent, deep jaundice occurs and the liver becomes greatly enlarged. This is a relatively benign form of cirrhosis. The cause is obstruction of the bile ducts but the underlying cause is unknown. The disease may exist for 10 to 20 years without causing any appreciable decrease in liver function or any loss of weight, but eventually the liver damage becomes severe.

Daily supplements of calcium and vitamins A, D and sometimes K are beneficial. A recent study showed that ammonium- and -potassium chloride before operating to relieve the biliary obstruction gave excellent results.

Q—I have heard that certain chemical poisons may cause cirrhosis of the liver.

Opening lead—♠ 9

As our last hand in this series about the late Helen Sobel Smith, we show one that she played in Budapest in the 1937 World's Championship.

Charley Vogelheffer, her partner, let her play at one spade. He knew that Helen did not pass anything that looked like an opening bid and decided that his collection of queens would not be enough for game opposite this passed partner.

He was correct in principle. East and West held the ace-king of trumps and two side aces but look what Helen did to them! Of course, East and West helped her along to the best of their ability—as helpers, not bridge players.

The nine of clubs was opened and lost to Helen's king after East ducked. Ace No. 1 had gone to the never-never land.

Now Helen began to operate on her own. She led the nine of diamonds. West ducked and dummy's queen won that trick. Next came the five of clubs from dummy. East pulled out his ace, pushed it back and finally played it, only to see Helen ruff it.

Back to dummy with the king of hearts in order to discard her king of diamonds on the queen of clubs and Helen had sent a second ace to that bourne of space and time from where there is no return.

She still wasn't through. Back to her own hand by ruffing the seven of diamonds to lead a low spade to dummy's queen. West hadn't done enough for Helen. He went up with his king of spades, only to lose it to his partner's ace. The defense wound up with just one trick and, as Charley said later, even Helen could not shut out the ace of trumps.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The spotted hyena, largest member of the Hyaenidae family, is a carnivorous mammal known more often by its nickname, the laughing hyena. The World Almanac says the animal received its nickname because of its shrill, peculiar cry. Like its cousins, the spotted hyena is a death-follower, prowling the night in small bands and living off carrion whenever possible.

reasons

To Be

Thankful

Read the 150th Psalm for a clue.

It begins and ends with a call for all men to praise God.

Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Perhaps we would do well to follow David in this matter of being Thankful. Our Pilgrim Fathers did. They put God right in the center of every Thanksgiving day. It was the Lord's Day . . . not just another day void of work. Then just what is there about Thanksgiving, about God, that makes me glad? What is it that lifts my face to Heaven when I am sad and when I am glad? Too many times we find the weak, the hungry, the sick and the sad way out in front with their Thanksgiving to God for His fairness, His kindness and His goodwill.

Certainly the Great God goes beyond justice to establish love as the central virtue. He gave up His Son to prove it to us beyond a doubt. He calls on us to be very Thankful for health, if we have it — for wealth, if we own it — and for that friend who can turn us on when our way is dark.

He invites all of us to live like women and men who know very well about God, . . . to be grateful for the few days He gave us which have been full of the trouble He promised. Don't ever let us say a final farewell to dear ones, but let us be Thankful for His promise that we may find them again.

Thank you, Lord, for these reasons and many more. Amen.

Little League Football Season Comes to a Close

Thursday night climaxed action for the Little League Football season at Hammons Stadium. In the first game the "Blues" of James Motor Co. defeated the "Whites" 13 to 6 for the League Championship. The Blues were undefeated but were tied once. The Whites had lost one and tied one.

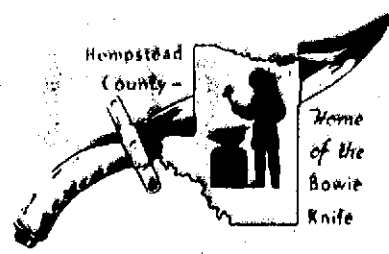

In the second game the "Golds" downed the "Reds" 20 to 7 before a crowd of cold but still cheering fans.

Cyclamate O.K.
Why Advise?

Yesterday we drove the full length of the completed Sixth street reconstruction job — and our congratulations to the City of Hope on a speedy, first-rate accomplishment.

Sixth street has been widened, given heavy-duty paving and gutters, and now is a second trunk roadway crossing Hope from east to west. The improvement enables local traffic to cross town without using the U.S. 67 route, Third street, reducing congestion on the latter.

Formerly local traffic was fed into U.S. 67 principally from two or three points, resulting in traffic jams at certain intersections. But now there is access to U.S. 67 from every point on Sixth street as it parallels the transcontinental highway across town.

And, unlike the older reconstruction job on West Ave. B, the Sixth street job came off on schedule, being completed, just as the contractor said it would be, before the winter rains set in.

What this column said about the folly of the federal government in blindly following the advice of laboratory men and prohibiting the sale of the sugar substitute known as cyclamate is vindicated by today's dispatch reporting that the prohibition has in the main been repealed.

As I wrote in this column when the prohibition was announced, the federal order had overtones of deceit and fraud. Like the fine print in a phony contract, I wrote, the government proclaimed flatly that the use of cyclamate induced cancer in humans — whereas the fine print in the laboratory report carefully explained that cancer had been induced in test mice only by giving "massive doses" of cyclamate.

I hazarded a guess that cyclamate might be withdrawn from diet soft drinks, because of the volume involved, but would be continued as a dinner-table substitute for sugar.

And that, precisely, is how the government amended its cyclamate order, according to today's dispatch from Washington.

Stupid bureaucrats — a dollar short and a week behind a mere country editor!

From an Arkansas Press association bulletin I get this commentary on advertising:

"Next time an advertiser tells you that 'everybody knows me and where I am and what I sell so I don't need to advertise' you might answer him that:

"The U.S. Government says after one year, 20 per cent of the population in our country moves on to another location. They may move from one side of town to the other, or they may move in or out of town, and there are new people continually coming into town.

"In two years, the 20 per cent figure jumps to 30 per cent; in three it is 38 per cent.

"After 10 years, 66 per cent of the population in our country will have moved. Can any retailer really afford to sit back and feel that everybody knows who he is and where he is? Successful newspaper circulation managers know this and are constantly seeking new subscribers — if they don't, total circulation drops rapidly."

Weekend Should Be Pleasant

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A pleasant break in the weather is expected for the weekend, the U. S. Weather Bureau said today.

At least another day of fair weather is expected as a large high pressure covers most of the nation. Saturday should be marked by warmer temperatures and only increasing cloudiness.

No rain is forecast through Saturday and none has occurred in Arkansas for the 24-hour period ended at 6 a.m.

Overnight lows around the state included 36 at Little Rock and Pine Bluff, 33 at Fayetteville, 48 at Harrison, 37 at Jonesboro, 38 at Texarkana, 30 at El Dorado, 41 at Memphis and 37 at Blytheville.

Astronauts Head Space Ship Home

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Only hours before starting the long trip home, Apollo 12's orbiting moon voyagers today snapped hundreds of pictures of future astronaut landing sites in the rugged lunar highlands.

The photographic targets included the shallow crater Fra Mauro, nestled among mountain peaks, which will be the target for Apollo 13 in March.

Charles "Pete" Conrad Jr., Richard F. Gordon Jr. and Alan L. Bean awoke shortly after midnight EST to conduct several hours of lunar surface photography from the Yankee Clipper command ship.

At 3:49 p.m. today they planned to trigger Clipper's big bell-shaped engine to blast themselves out of moon orbit to start the three-day quarter-million-mile journey back to their home planet. They splash down in the Pacific at 3:57 p.m. Monday, ending man's second expedition to the lunar surface.

There was little conversation with the ground as the astronauts kept busy operating six cameras and orienting the spaceship to get the proper angle and lighting conditions.

Bean took a few moments to give his impression of the moon's back side, which cannot be seen from earth.

"The back side is a lot more worn and smooth," he said. "The front side's got a lot more contrast and a lot more sharp features to look at. I personally like to look at the front side. On the back side it seems there's no flat area at all, just big craters and little craters, no real sharp contrasts between flat and high mountains."

At 2:23 a.m., they fired their engine to change course slightly to bring the spaceship in line for better photographic angles.

Conrad asked if "that hot engine of ours didn't by any chance buy us enough gas to come home a day early, did it?"

If enough extra fuel remained, Yankee Clipper could shorten its trip home by boosting its speed to follow a path that would be several hours shorter.

Big Contract for Camden

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — The Camden Mfg. Co. announced Thursday that it had received an Air Force contract of more than $4 million for the continued production of an aerial dispenser. Douglas B. Moore, plant manager, said production would resume in December.

With a Big Appetite, Small Budget You Just Must Learn to Cook

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — When we sent our daughter off to college to be educated we got a bonus. For the same money, Gay is learning to cook.

Always thoroughly undomesticated, she donned her chef's hat out of necessity. Her culinary career started last year when she was going to school in Paris and had a small budget and a large appetite.

At this time her entire equipment consisted of a coffee pot, in which she and her enterprising roommate prepared all sorts of semigourmet items like soup, hot dogs and hard-boiled eggs.

One of their more memorable dishes was beef stew a la coffee pot, a concoction that still hasn't found its way into any French cookbooks.

The two bought a piece of meat, carrots and green beans, all of which they cut up with the scalpel from the roommate's dissecting kit. For the final touch they added a bouillon cube and threw it all in the coffee pot to simmer.

This year Gay is back to American cuisine, and she has at her disposal such niceties as a stove and small refrigerator in the campus apartment she shares with two friends. One of them is talented in the home-making department and Gay is and 37 at Blytheville.

Enemy Says U.S. Must Change Policy, Not the Man in Peace Talks

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

PARIS (AP) — The Viet Cong says the Nixon administration must change its policy, not its man at the Paris peace talks, if it wants a peace agreement.

"Changing the negotiator is not enough—the Nixon administration must also change its policy," Viet Cong spokesman Duong Dinh Thao told a news conference after the announcement that Henry Cabot Lodge, the chief U.S. negotiator at the peace talks, and his chief deputy, New York attorney Lawrence E. Walsh, had resigned.

U.S. Backs Up on Ban of Cyclamates

By WILLIAM J. WAUGH
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Stepping back from what was widely interpreted as a near total ban on cyclamates, the government now says the artificial sweetener may be used in clearly labeled foods and as a sugar substitute in liquid or tablet form.

Robert H. Finch, secretary of health, education and welfare, said Thursday night the sale of foods and sugar substitutes containing the sweetener will be allowed as long as the label shows the cyclamate content in an average serving.

A ban against cyclamates in diet soft drinks and other beverages effective Jan. 1 remains in effect.

Although the secretary emphasized Thursday cyclamates should be consumed only upon the advice of a doctor, his decision will allow its sale in foods and concentrates on a nonprescription basis.

HEW spokesmen said the ban on cyclamate-sweetened beverages has been "strengthened." They said Finch had made it clear Oct. 8 cyclamates would continue to be available to those who may need it for medical purposes. For beverages, that's no longer the case.

Finch ordered the phased-out withdrawal of the sweetener after laboratory tests produced bladder cancer in rats at intake levels 50 times higher than recommended for humans.

The secretary eased the economic blow on the multimillion dollar industry after receiving recommendations from a medical advisory panel headed by Dr. Roger O. Egeberg, his assistant.

Living Costs Keep Going Higher

WASHINGTON (AP) — Higher prices for cars and houses were major factors in a fourth of one per cent rise in living costs last month that continued the nation's sharpest inflation in some 20 years, the government said today.

However, Americans got a break at the grocery store in October when food prices declined six-tenths of one per cent, notably for meat and vegetables.

The over-all rise in living costs brought the Labor Department's consumer price index to 129.8. This means it cost $12.98 last month for every $10 worth of food, housing, clothing, transportation and medical care in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

At the same time, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that average pay of some 45 million rank and file workers declined 86 cents a week to $116.94 because of a substantial cut in the work week. After the deduction for taxes and the rise in living costs, the purchasing power of the average pay check was down one per cent for the month and eight-tenths of one per cent below a year earlier.

ASC County Election Convention

The county convention where farmer-chosen delegates will elect farmers to fill vacancies on the Hempstead County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee will be held December 2, 1969, at 10:00 A.M. in the Conference Room in the Federal Building in Hope, according to Ralph Montgomery, Chairman, ASC County Committee.

The convention will be open to the public, and any person interested in observing the voting procedure may attend. However, only farmer delegates to the convention may participate in the election process. Election is by secret ballot.

County committeemen are elected for 3-year staggered terms, and the service of each county committeeman is limited to three consecutive terms. One regular committeeman will be elected to the county committee for a term of 3 years and a first and second alternate for 1 year each. Each year the convention also elects a first and second alternate committeeman, each for a 1-year term.

After the county committeemen are elected, the delegates vote again to determine which of the regular committeemen will serve as chairman and vice chairman for the coming year. These positions are re-determined annually.

ASC county and community committeemen are in charge of the local administration of such farm-action programs as the Agricultural Conservation Program, the Cropland Adjustment Program, the feed grain program, the wheat program, the upland cotton diversion program, acreage allotments and marketing quotas, the national wool program, the sugar program, commodity price-support loans, and storage facility loans.

Jury Picked in Rape Case

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — The selection of a jury to hear a first-degree rape case got underway here Thursday in Circuit Court.

Charles Job, 17, of Egypt and Flint, Mich.; Jerry Arnders, 18, of Cash and Flint, Mich.; and Arnders' brother, Franklin, 28, of Jonesboro and Egypt, are charged with allegedly raping a 19-year-old pregnant woman in Egypt last July.

Agency Needs to Be Aired

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The needs of state agencies and institutions will be discussed at hearings scheduled for Dec. 4-5 at the state Capitol.

G. V. Winthrop Rockefeller said Thursday he would conduct the hearings. He said the needs in the areas of secondary and higher education, criminal justice, local government, health and welfare and salary adjustments for state employees would be discussed.

Says Nixon Peace Plan Is Working

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Deputy Defense Secretary David Packard said today that President Nixon's plan for peace in Vietnam is working and is not being jeopardized at this point by increasing enemy activity.

Winding up a six-day assessment of the war situation—and his first visit to Vietnam—Packard said he does not claim that "peace and tranquility stand within immediate reach on some certain, predictable, pre-planned schedule."

"There has never been any progress in Paris, and a determined enemy still faces us here," he told an airport news conference before flying on to other points in Southeast Asia.

But the secretary said as the Saigon government's forces grow "inexorably stronger, it will be possible for President Nixon to maintain the momentum of U.S. troop replacements based on his three determining criteria of progress in Paris, the level of enemy activity and growing South Vietnamese armed forces strength."

"The weapon and equipment improvement and modernization program for the Republic of Vietnam armed forces now is virtually complete, except for some long-term needs—particularly air forces. And the emphasis now is shifting from quantity to quality. United States forces will be engaging in stepped-up advisory work, particularly in support of training. Combined operations will continue to be emphasized."

Packard added that he would tell the President, Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird and Secretary of State William P. Rogers "that on the basis of what I have seen here I believe President Nixon's plan for peace is practical, feasible, and most important, is working."

On the battlefields, action flared anew Thursday and today around the Bu Prang and Duc Lap Special Forces camps, a 25-mile corridor in the southern part of the central highlands where Nixon's plans to turn the war over to the South Vietnamese are being tested by heavy enemy pressure. Fighting also was reported farther north in the highlands above Pleiku.

Power Firm Contributes to 4-H Clubs

This makes the twenty-third year Southwestern Electric Power Company has presented a $50,000 contribution to the Hempstead County 4-H Club Council. Otis Stobaugh made the presentation to Calvin Caldwell, County Extension Agent, on November 19.

Southwestern is pleased to make this annual contribution to the 4-H Club Councils in each county or parish in which the company operates, leaving to the discretion of the Councils how the money will be used.

"We are honored to be associated with the 4-H Clubs, their leaders, and the people of the Extension Service and are proud of their efforts," said Mr. Stobaugh, Head Farm and Youth Department. "Their work has always been outstanding and the energy with which they attack problems exemplifies their motto, 'To Make the Best Better.'"

We sincerely hope that we shall be able to continue making investments in our Youth. We know that the activity of this group is making a great contribution to the continued growth, progress and freedom of America."

Judge Denies Motion in Turner Case

In Hempstead Circuit Court this morning Judge W.H. Arnold III denied a motion by the defense of Dennis Turner for dismissal of a charge of robbery in connection with the Christmas Day slaying of Larry Yates, 18.

The motion by the defense contended that the charge created double jeopardy as Turner was tried on a charge of murdering Yates and acquitted. The robbery charge was filed after an indictment of a special grand jury called to investigate circumstances in the Yates slaying. Richard Turner was also indicted by the jury and charged with being an accessory to the robbery. There was no date set for the trial.

In other action a jury awarded Mike Ledwig $4,350 for land the Arkansas Highway Department used in connection with Interstate 30. A similar case involving land owned by Coy Breeding was being heard today.

Date Set for Trial of Four Negro Rioters

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Four Negro Marines charged with rioting, assault and conspiring to riot will stand court martial together beginning Dec. 1.

The decision to try all four at once came Thursday after a mistrial was declared in the trial of Pvt. Oscar W. Terry Jr., 19, of Paducah, Ky., who was being tried separately.

Defense and prosecution attorneys agreed to join Terry's court martial with the one scheduled for the other three.

Navy Capt. William E. Neely, the military judge, declared the mistrial after one of seven members of the all-white court testified that "after much soul searching" he felt he could not be impartial in deciding the guilt or innocence of Terry, a Bronze Star winner in Vietnam.

"I know when I sat on the court I tended to say this man is guilty," testified Lt. Cmdr. J. W. Erhart. "I don't know why, really, I've done much soul searching."

Terry and the other four are charged with invading a barracks and a snack bar at the Memphis Naval Air Station about 20 miles north of here the night of July 30 and precipitating a black-white clash.

Printing Bids Are Opened

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Secretary of State Kelly Bryant said Thursday that his office opened 212 bids on 74 contracts, but that recipients of the contracts would not be announced for several days.

No bids were received on four other proposed contracts.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three months of debate over the Supreme Court nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. of South Carolina will end today when the Senate votes on the confirmation. An unofficial survey by The Associated Press showed Haynsworth with a comparatively thin 45-43 margin in committed votes going into today's closing arguments.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 12 is on its way home from its Moonadventure. The astronauts requested that Mission Control look into the possibility that the Yankee Clipper mother craft has enough fuel left to splashdown a day early. Mission Control was looking into this possibility. Thursday night the astronauts took pictures of the Moon terrain where future missions may be landing. In another development Thursday, the impact of the jettisoned lunar module Intrepid on the moon caused reverberations on a seismograph left on the moon, giving scientists yet another piece of data to study.

PARIS (AP) — The Viet Cong have not changed their stand in the wake of the resignation of top U.S. Paris talks negotiator Henry Cabot Lodge Thursday. A Cong spokesman in Paris said the Nixon administration must change its policy, not its negotiator. Lodge resigned for what he termed personal reasons. His chief deputy, New York attorney Lawrence E. Walsh, also resigned.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Vice President Spiro Agnew extended his recent criticism of the nation's media to include some daily newspapers Thursday night in a speech in Montgomery. Agnew found fault with the New York Times and the Washington Post after stating that he does "not seek to intimidate the press" and that he does not favor any censorship of the media.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's first foreign aid bill passed through the House Thursday by a narrow 176-163 vote on the third roll call. The bill now goes to the Senate as a trimmed-down $2.19 billion package, including the late addition of $54.5 million for planes to be sent to Nationalist China.

Pilot Walks Out of the Arctic Ice

INUVIK, N.W.T. (AP) — A 47-year-old pilot walked out of the Arctic barrens on frostbitten feet Thursday, ending an 18-day ordeal after his light plane was forced down on the Mackenzie River delta in the Northwest Territories.

Doctors said John B. Woslying of Inuvik, a pilot for the Northern Canada Power Commission, was in remarkably good shape although he had been subjected to temperature of 40 below zero once.

Haynsworth's Nomination Is Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rejected today the nomination of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr., to be an associate justice of the Supreme Court.

The vote was 55 to 45. The Senate's refusal to confirm the 57-year-old South Carolinian was the sharpest rebuff the Democratic-controlled Congress has dealt President Nixon. But it took a split in Republican ranks to defeat the nomination.

At the White House, there was no immediate comment and reporters were told there would be none until mid-afternoon at the earliest.

The President laid his prestige on the line by standing steadfast behind Haynsworth in the face of strong opposition mounted by labor leaders and civil rights forces.

Haynsworth, now chief judge of the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, was the first Supreme Court nominee to be rejected by the Senate since 1930 when Judge John J. Parker was defeated by two votes.

The Senate Republican leader, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, said before the vote that confirmation by a narrow margin could raise later difficulties with public opinion.

The vote was more one-sided than expected, with all of the lately uncommitted senators voting against confirmation except for Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., who had voted to approve the nomination in the Judiciary Committee and had been listed among the supporters, cast his vote against confirmation.

The leaders of both parties, Scott and Democratic Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, were among those who had not made their position known in advance and who voted against confirmation.

Others who voted no after being uncommitted were Sens. Alan Bible, D-Nev., Albert Gore, D-Tenn., Mark Hatfield, R-Ore., Henry Jackson, D-Wash., Eugene J. McCarthy, R-Minn., Robert W. Packwood, R-Ore., John O. Pastore, D-R.I., Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., and William B. Saxbe, R-Ohio.

Just before the vote, Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., floor manager for the nomination, asked his colleagues "where do we go from here if we reject this nomination?"

He said "It would amount to a rejection of the President's purpose of restoring balance to the court. It is what the President wants. It is what the nation wants."

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said in a statement after the vote that the Senate's action "represents a tragic loss for America."

"Judge Haynsworth is a good man, an honest man, and a great judge," Eastland said. "We have been deprived of his services as an associate justice in a day when men of his caliber are sorely needed in the highest councils of our land."
